THE QUEEN WHO FELT THE PEOPLE'S LOVE

Once there was a queen who loved all the people. But the one thing that the queen wanted more than anything else was for the people to love each other. Every day, the queen watched the people, and whenever the queen saw any of them showing love, she smiled and felt the love too. The queen watched the people all day long.

Sometimes the queen saw somebody giving food to a hungry person. "Ah," said the queen, "That is love!"

The queen rubbed her tummy as if she had just eaten a delicious meal. The queen smiled and felt the love too.

Sometimes the queen saw somebody giving a drink to a thirsty person. "Ah," said the queen, "that is love."

The queen licked her lips as if she had just had a refreshing drink. The queen smiled and felt the love too.

Sometimes the queen saw somebody making a new friend. "Ah," said the queen, "that is love!"

The queen patted her heart and thought about how good it is to make new friends. The queen smiled and felt the love too.

And sometimes the queen saw somebody giving warm clothing to a person who was cold. "Ah," said the queen, "that is love."

As the queen watched, she felt warm. The queen smiled and felt the love too. The queen loved the people so much. When the people showed their love for one another, the queen felt like they loved her, too. The queen was very, very happy.

MAKE YOUR OWN PAPER CUP FLOWERS

We are all part of God’s family; when we help and show love and kindness, we are caring for God.

MATERIALS:

A4 piece of paper, thick paper	Cupcake liners
Textas or crayons	Old magazines
Glue	Scissors

METHOD:

1. Cut a flowerpot shape from the A4 paper and glue it onto the thicker paper
2. Draw leaves and stems coming out of the pot.
3. To form a flower, glue a cupcake liner at the top of each stem.
4. Cut out faces of people of different nationalities from magazines and glue them to the middle of each cupcake liner.
5. Alternatively, draw a face in each cupcake liner.

when we are giving food and water to others we are doing because we love Jesus and want to help other people to love Him too!

Dear Jesus,

Thank you for teaching me what to do I see someone who is hungry, Thirsty, cold, or with nowhere to live.

I know it will make you happy when you see us giving out Your kind of love to the people who need it which is all of us.

I'm sorry for the times when I hurt God's family because I'm being selfish. Please forgive me. Amen
